General scheme principles

1. High level of feed safety assurance worldwide

2. Primary responsibility for feed safety lies upon the participant

3. Participants share the responsibility of feed safety within the whole feed chain

4. Alignment with internationally accepted standards

5. Transparency and involvement with multiple stakeholders

6. Independent certification

GMP+ International